

July 16-1936

We left Glenwood at about 3:30^{a.m.} a m. Got to Columbus Nebr at 20 min to 6 - Stopped at Lexington to have the car looked over - Did a little shopping - Bought a little Parasol for Rose Marie and a hot dish holder - It was very hot on the streets - We got started on at 10 o'clock and drove to North Platte It was 110° hot and we decided not to drive any more that day. We hunted around & found tourist Rooms - with a Mrs. Ladd We got ourselves some dinner and went to a movie - Saw The Dancing Pirate and another one

not very good either one, Left early next morning after setting time 1 hr. earlier Driving very interesting Saw reached jack rabbits & other western sights Mts & Blue horizon - etc Stopped along at various places & took pictures - Shopped & ate lunch

in Denver - June saw an Indian exhibition on street as she was hunting a mail fox - I waited in car & missed it. We stopped at Pueblo Colo. & found a nice tourist home - Got up
traveling 47 miles that we forgot Mr. Purse - so we drove back after it - The drive back was very silent and seemed endless We found the purse so our spirits were somewhat restored - The Mountains on

were gorgeous - Waited up, Raton Pass - a hair-raising trip - Stopped at a Curio-Store on the top - bought Cards & Souvenirs - Drove down & the decent was very racking in the extreme - Ate
more mountains & trailed along the Rio Grande river - We entered New Mexico about mid-afternoon - Kept driving & arrived in all, about 8 o'clock Sat. nite. Spent Sunday & Monday with

Tues. morning at about 9 - No towns till we got to Santa Rosa where we ate dinner - The trip on to Amarilla was very hot & nothing but barren land hardly an oil station even - We stayed in Amarilla all nite Had a nice place to sleep - Drove all the next day with a few stops - Set watch back at Tucson Stopped at Eliz. Okla. went on to Wichita

for the night - Cherokees unable to travel in the morning so I took a bus at 10:30 Got home next morning at 11:30 ~~in the dark~~ ^{but now}
